HOW PAYMENTS WORK

Lazy Dog Capital LLC does not draft your account. Each month we send you a statement showing the amount due, and you send the payment by ACH or through the portal. Your payment will cover:

- the monthly interest payment due under my Promissory Note,
- any late charge that becomes due under the Note, and
- any other amount that becomes due and payable under the loan documents.

Payments are due on the 1st day of each month and are considered late on the 4th. A late charge applies after the 10th day. Because interest accrues on funds actually advanced, your payment amount changes as construction draws fund — always pay the amount shown on that month's statement.

IF YOU MISS A PAYMENT

I remain responsible for making each payment on time regardless of how I choose to send it. If a payment is returned for insufficient funds or any other reason, I remain responsible for the payment, any late charge, and any returned-item fee my bank or Lazy Dog Capital charges.
